

Report of International Nurses Day

International Nurses Day is celebrated around the world every May 12, the anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth. This year, International Council of Nurses commemorated this important day with the theme: NURSES: A FORCE FOR CHANGE – IMPROVING HEALTH SYSTEM RESILIENCE.

Rama college of Nursing celebrated International Nurses Day – 2016 on May 12th 2016. Competitive were started on 11th and 12th of May 2016. The competitive events were Essay Writing, Speech Competition, Poster presentation, Quiz competition and Tableau competition on different themes related to Importance of Nursing and Changes in Health Care System.

All the activities are carried out under the guidance of Ms. Sutha. R, Principal, Rama College of Nursing and the programme coordinators were Mr. Merridith and Mr. Vinil Asst. Prof, Rama College of Nursing.

Nurse's day was celebrated on 12.05.2016 following the competitions, in multipurpose hall, Rama College of Nursing. The chief guest of the programme was Dr. Rushen Chahal, Vice Chancellor, Rama University. The Guest of Honour was Dr. R.K.Srivastava, Director of Rama College of Nursing and Mrs. Shoba Nair, Finance controller, Rama Group of Institutions.

Programme started with innovation song followed by inauguration of the function by lighting the lamp by the Dignitaries. Ms. Asha, Nursing Tutor went through Biography of Florence Nightingale, Sutha. R. Principal, remind the audience about the significance of the day. The chief guest and guest of honour were delivered thought provoking and inspiring speech regarding nurse's day. The programme was concluded with National Anthem.